

Battle of the Sexes!

Samaritan has raised the stakes in our 50 Fabulous Men Who Cook event by adding a Battle of the Sexes! That's right, ladies—this means we are now recruiting women to cook, too! Winners of the competition will be based on who raises the most tip money—collectively (men versus women) as well as individually. (Note: Men and women may still work together as a team.)

Expectations of Each Cook:

- Your goal is to raise $1,000 PRIOR to the event by soliciting your circle of contacts
- Prepare and serve any Appetizer, Main Dish, or Dessert of your choice
- Prepare 100 “sample size” servings (ex., ½ cup pasta, 1 cupcake, or 1 appetizer x 100)
- Cook/bake at home and transport your dish to the event OR prepare your food entirely or partially on site—your preference
- Bring your own cooking/serving utensils (spatulas, ladles, etc.) and all ingredients

Samaritan Will Provide:

- Marketing support to help you reach your fundraising goal PRIOR to the event
- Cooking/serving station, chafing dish, portable burner, ice—depending on your needs
- Apron and chef's hat plus disposable plates, bowls, utensils and napkins for guests
- Your own web page through which folks can tip you (guests will also be able to tip you during the event via their Smartphones!)
- Opportunity to showcase yourself/your business to ~300 guests

Note: This event was sold out last year and received rave reviews! If you would like to compete as a cook, please sign up ASAP to secure your spot. Openings are filled on a first come, first served basis.
