Counseling Vouchers

Pastors counsel church members on a regular basis, but there are times when the depth or nature of the issues require psychological therapy. Since opening our doors in 1982, pastors have referred their members to Samaritan. Because our counselors integrate clients' faith principles into their therapy, pastors know their members are in good hands.

Counseling vouchers are given to pastors to distribute to church members as they see fit. (The number of vouchers provided is based on a Church Partner's financial contributions to Samaritan.)

A voucher is worth one free counseling session.

We also provide vouchers for Spiritual Direction and counseling for pastors. Subsequent sessions will normally be covered by the client's health insurance. However, if clients are unable to pay, they may qualify for subsidies from Samaritan's Client Aid Fund.
