A retreat for adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse

TamarSpeaks—a core aspect of SafeChurch training in which your church and others are participating—is an empowering, uplifting retreat for men and women who are survivors of sexual abuse.

Facilitated by professional counselors of faith, TamarSpeaks incorporates soothing music, art, writing and other inspirational tools to help you:

- Reflect on your journey of hope and healing
- Create resources to raise awareness of abuse
- Equip yourself and other adults to keep children safe

In order to foster the most comfortable, safe environment possible, only childhood sexual abuse survivors whose home churches are enrolled in the SafeChurch training are invited to this retreat.

Do you have questions about whether TamarSpeaks is “right” for you? Call our retreat facilitators—Carl Baughman, Executive Director of the Samaritan Counseling Center at 412.741.7430, or Michelle Snyder, Executive Director of the Pittsburgh Pastoral Institute at 412.661.1239. There is no charge to attend.

SafeChurch and TamarSpeaks have been implemented in hundreds of churches across the nation in an effort to help eliminate child sexual abuse. In Western Pennsylvania, these programs are provided collaboratively by:
