“It’s Nice to Share!” – Tell Us about Your Experiences with Samaritan

Summary

Do you have a positive relationship or experience you would like to share about Samaritan? Perhaps you engaged in one or several of our programs/services which had a positive impact on your life? Or maybe you served on our board, volunteered or partnered with us in some other capacity?

Samaritan welcomes hearing from you and re-telling your story. Your words have the potential to touch the hearts of other people, making a difference in their lives or inspiring them to step forward and make a difference.

Duties/Responsibilities

You must be willing to share your experience(s) as a donor, volunteer, collaborator or recipient of Samaritan’s services through an interview with Samaritan staff. What you tell us may be used in newsletters, website posts and/or other means of communications. (You will be asked to sign a release form indicating the types of media through which you are comfortable communicating.)

Skills/Qualifications

You need only to be passionate about sharing your experiences to uplift, educate and inspire others in your role as a Samaritan advocate.
